YOURS FOR BUSINESS,

C. T. FLANDERS, Judy, Ky.

Sketch of Miss Lavenia Oldham's Work in Japan.

The ship which carries this letter to America also carries one of Japan's most faithful workers—Miss Lavenia Oldham. Miss Oldham is returning to the home land for a well-earned vacation of one year. She has been in Japan twelve years, having spent all this time in the city of Tokio, and has confined her efforts, for the most part, to one section of the city—Ushigome Ku. It is not necessary for me to introduce Miss Oldham to the American brotherhood; she is known far and wide. Her work, however, I fear is not as widely known as it deserves, even among those who are acquainted with her as a missionary. There are some whose work is largely on paper and consists in telling what they have done and nausium. To this class Miss Oldham emphatically does not belong. I have read her papers for years, but do not remember having seen more than a paragraph from her pen. Without her knowledge or consent I ask for space to describe her work somewhat.

When I first came to Japan eleven years ago Miss Oldham and Miss Rios were living in a small Japanese house in Ushigome ward. They had gathered around them a small band of believers, and Mr. Nishikubo, one of our evangelists, was preaching to this embryo church. After a short time Miss Oldham moved to herself in another part of the same ward, and began meetings again in her home, assisted this time by the young men whom she attracted to her Bible classes. In a few years, with her own money, she erected a neat chapel not far from her home. The Foreign Christian Missionary Society purchased a house at 20 Nakano Cho, Ushigome Ku, and again she and Miss Rios moved together. In this home and in the chapel Miss Oldham's best and most effective work has been done. Besides the work in these two places, she has a day school in another part of the ward, and visits every week Hachioji, a town about twenty miles from Tokio. She has several helpers working with her, and in connection with these she conducts her day school, two Sunday Schools, women's meetings and the visiting of an increasing number of communicants. The regular church services are in the hands of Mr. Murayama, a competent and faithful preacher. Her greatest effectiveness has been in her Bible classes. These she conducts regularly in her home. These are attended for the most part by young men. So successful has her teaching been that a large number of these have become Christians, and at least three are actively engaged in the work of the ministry, while the others are useful members of our churches. It doubtless is a great satisfaction to her to see her "sons" in the leading pulpits of the Church of Christ in Japan—Mr. Hirai in Osaka, Mr. Kawai in the mother church of Tokio, and Mr. Murayama in the church where she attends.

I consider Miss Oldham a successful missionary. There are two words which express the secret of her success: Prayer and love. Prayer to God for power and fitness, a prayer grandly answered. Love for her work, making the heavy burdens light, love for her fellow-workers making fellowship sweet, and love for the people among whom she has come to work, lacking which many have made a failure of their life.

That which Miss Oldham would not write, I have written, and the story is not half told. Let us remember that there are those whose names do not appear in print, who, nevertheless, are doing a great work for Christ, the very mention of which is their greatest praise.—H. H. Guy, of Tokio, in The Missionary Intelligencer.

Kentucky Fairs.

The following are the dates fixed for holding the Kentucky Fairs for 1904, as far as reported. Officers of other Fair Associations are requested to report to us the date of their meetings for this year: Kirkville, July 15—4 days. Crab Orchard, July 27—3 days. Danville, August 3—4 days. Harrodsburg, August 9—4 days. Georgetown, August 9-12. Lawrenceburg, August 16—4 days. Shepherdsville, August 23—4 days. Shelbyville, August 28—4 days. Springfield, August 24—4 days. Somerset, August 30—4 days. Nicholasville, August 30—3 days. Florence, August 31—4 days. Glasgow, August 31—4 days. Elizabethtown, September 6—4 days. Hartford, September 21—4 days.

No False Claims.

The proprietors of Foley's Honey and Tar do not advertise this as a "sure cure for consumption." They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Honey and Tar is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. 51-4t

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

At the National Prohibition Convention.

Full Text of Platform Adopted, Etc., Etc.

This convention assembled at Indianapolis, June 29 and 30, 1904. The platform was agreed upon in committee with practical unanimity and is as follows:

THE PLATFORM.

The Resolutions Committee reported the following platform to the convention, which was adopted:

"The Prohibition party, in national convention assembled at Indianapolis, June 30, 1904, recognizing that the chief end of all government is the establishment of those principles of righteousness and justice that have been revealed to man as the will of ever-living God, and desiring His blessing upon our national life, and believing in the perpetuation of the high ideals of government of the people, by the people and for the people established by our fathers, makes the following declaration of principles and purposes:

"1. The widely prevailing system of the licensed and legalized sale of alcoholic beverages is so ruinous to individual interests, so inimical to public welfare, so destructive to national wealth and so subversive to the rights of the great masses of our citizenship that the destruction of the traffic is and for years has been the most important question in American politics.

"2. We denounce the lack of statesmanship exhibited by the leaders of the Democratic and Republican parties in their refusal to recognize the paramount importance of this question and the cowardice with which the leaders of these parties have courted the favor of those whose selfish interests are advanced by the continuation and augmentation of the traffic, until today the influence of the liquor traffic practically dominates national, state and local government throughout the nation.

DEMOCRATIC LICENSE SYSTEM.

"3. We declare the truth, demonstrated by the experience of half a century, that all methods of dealing with the liquor traffic which recognize its right to exist in any form, under any system of license, or tax, or regulation, have proved powerless to remove its evils and useless as checks upon its growth, while the insignificant public revenues which have accrued therefrom have sated the public conscience against a recognition of its iniquity.

"4. We call public attention to the fact, proved by the experience of more than 50 years, that to secure the enactment and enforcement of prohibitory legislation, in which alone lies hope of the protection of the people from the liquor traffic, it is necessary that the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the Government should be in the hands of a political party in harmony with the prohibition principle and pledged to its embodiment in law and to the execution of those laws.

"5. We pledge the Prohibition party, wherever given power by the suffrages of the people, to the enactment and enforcement of laws prohibiting and abolishing the manufacture, importation, transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages.

"6. We declare that there is not another issue of equal importance before the American people, but the so-called issues upon which the Democratic and Republican parties seek to divide the electorate of the country, are in large part subterfuges, under the cover of which they wrangle for the spoils of office.

"7. Recognizing that the intelligent voters of the country may properly ask our attitude upon other questions of public concern, we declare ourselves in favor of:

"The impartial enforcement of all law.

"The safe-guarding of the people's rights by a rigid application of the principles of justice to all combinations and organizations of capital and labor.

"The reform of our divorce laws, the final extermination of polygamy and the overthrow of the present system of shameful sanction of social evil, with its unspeakable traffic in girls, by the municipal authorities of almost all our cities.

"We declare ourselves in favor of recognition of the fact that the right of suffrage should depend upon the mental and moral qualifications of the citizens.

"We declare ourselves in favor of such changes in our laws as will place tariff schedules in the hands of an impartial commission.

"We declare ourselves in favor of the application of uniform laws for all our country and dependencies.

"We declare ourselves in favor of the extension and honest administration of the Civil Service laws.

"We declare ourselves in favor of the election of United States Senators by vote of the people."

MISCELLANEOUS.

At the conclusion of the reading of the platform there was a prolonged demonstration.

The initiative and referendum clause was loudly applauded, as were the planks favoring popular election of Senators and denouncing polygamy.

THE NOMINEES.

For President—Silas C. Swallow, of Pennsylvania. For Vice President—George W. Carroll, of Texas.

Mr. Hague read a letter from Mr. Swallow deploring that his wife's illness prevented his attending the convention. Mr. Hague said:

"You put your finger on Silas Swallow and you know where he is. In his letter Mr. Swallow says the Democratic party has no issue, except in antithesis to the Republication position and the Republican party has no issue, except subterfuge to maintain itself in power."

The National Committee was authorized to fill vacancies on the ticket.

National Chairman Stewart and National Secretary Tate were re-elected. The Prohibition Executive Committee organized by electing Edward Clark, of Indianapolis, President.

We saw the following banners in the hall:

"Whether or not the world would be vastly benefitted by a total and final vanishment from it of all intoxicating drinks, seems not now to be an open question. Three-fourths of mankind confess the affirmation with their tongues and, I believe, all the rest acknowledge it in their hearts."—A. Lincoln, February 22, '42.

"And when the victory shall be complete, when there shall be neither a slave nor a drunkard on the earth; how proud the title of that land which may truly claim to be the birthplace and the cradle of both those revolutions that shall have ended in that victory."—A. Lincoln, February 22, '42.

"Homes may be destroyed, but not by my vote."—Hale Johnson.

Bank Advertising.

Some of the local banks, which are enterprising enough in other directions, seem now to be awaking to the importance of advertising their business through the newspapers.

This is but a sign of the times. It is an advertising age, because it is a progressive age, and all lines of business that are not contented with the old rules are seeking to get out of them. The surest sign that a business is in a rut is that it does not advertise, for the advertiser is ever the man that is reaching out after more business, and advertising is the most effective means of extending the field of any enterprise that depends upon public patronage.—Courier-Journal, Louisville.

Death to Chigres.

Every one knows who goes camping that Chigres are annoying and painful. Paracamp not only relieves the chigres bite but kills the chigre. Apply it freely, rub in well. It will give immediate relief; so take a bottle along with you. 51-4t

There are 190,227 professional beggars in Spain. In some of the cities beggars are licensed to carry on their trade. Seeking alms is recognized as legitimate business and the municipality demands a percentage upon the collections. Seville is the only city in the kingdom which forbids begging in the streets.

Tight Shoes.

Make soft corns, hard corns, and bunions hurt. Paracamp will relieve the pain instantly, draw out the inflammation and make the feet comfortable. There is nothing just as good, so be sure you get Paracamp. 51-4t Steamers with 30,000 cases of Australian apples on board apiece have arrived at frequent intervals at London, and one day 500 tons of Australian fruit pulp (for jam making) were sold in that city.

Bronchitis for Twenty Years.

Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar which is a sure cure." 51-4t

Do not forget that the fowls in warm weather must have shade, even if it is necessary to build a lean-to for them.

Pardon Given Mrs. Nancy May by Acting Governor Thorne.

Mrs. Nancy May was taken to the penitentiary Thursday morning from Leslie county, where she was given ten years on a charge of having killed Miss Smith over domestic troubles. Mrs. May carried in her arms a 3-months-old baby. Her application for pardon was swift and she was permitted to call on her Executive office. She spent about a half hour with Acting Governor Thorne, who pardoned her.

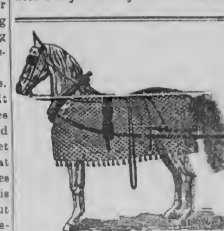

Governor Thorne's act in pardoning the woman under the circumstances has caused considerable friendly comment. She will return home tonight.

Good Bathing.

Is often followed by severe sunburn. Paracamp draws out the fire of sunburn, prevents blistering, relieves the pain instantly, and heals quickly without an ugly scar. Don't fail to carry a bottle of Paracamp with you on your vacation. 51-4t

The Bureau of Statistics at Washington predicts that the value of manufactures exported this fiscal year will reach $450,000,000.

Sound kidneys are safeguards of life. Make the kidneys healthy with Foley's Kidney Cure. 51-4t

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

The Largest, Most Determined and Enthusiastic on Record.

Alton Brooks Parker, of New York, Made the Nominee for the Presidency

Of the U. S. on the First Ballot, Receiving 653 Votes, and Henry S. Davis, of W. Va., Was Named the Candidate for Vice President by a Vote of 654 on First Ballot.

On the evening of July 6th the Democratic hosts of the United States met in convention at St. Louis, Mo., for the purpose of adopting a platform, naming candidates for President, Vice President and naming committees preparatory to aggressive campaign work.

Hon. James K. Jones, of Arkansas, called the convention to order. Hon. John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, was made temporary Chairman, and Hon. Champ Clark permanent Chairman. From the beginning to the finish the convention was one scene of intense interest and enthusiasm in which the party's greatest men contended for principles conscientiously entertained. The platform was the result of protracted debate in which opposing leaders made concessions. Bryan showed himself the great man that he is and won fresh laurels with the people. The great westerner and David B. Hill, who have long been opposing leaders, shook hands over the agreed platform and have declared they will support the action of the convention most enthusiastically. The Democratic party is now a unit and will present a solid front to the enemy.

Saturday after a continuous session from 8:00 o'clock p. m., the able jurist, the farm reared boy and home man, Judge Alton Brooks Parker, was unanimously agreed to as the candidate for President, and that the people may know him to be a conscientious man, one who would rather be right before the people than President, he caused the following message to be forwarded to the messengers in convention:

"I regard the Gold Standard as firmly and irrevocably established, and shall act accordingly if the action of today shall be ratified by the people. As the platform is silent on the subject, my views should be made known to the convention, and if they prove to be unsatisfactory to the majority I request you to decline the nomination for me once so that another may be nominated before adjournment."

In response to this the convention caused the following reply to be wired Judge Parker:

"The platform adopted by this convention is silent on the question of monetary standard because it is not regarded by us as a possible issue in this campaign and only campaign issues were mentioned in the platform. Therefore there is nothing in the views expressed by you in the telegram just received which would preclude a man entertaining them from accepting a nomination on said platform."

This question adjusted, the convention settled down in its efforts to secure a candidate for Vice President resulting in a unanimous choice of Senator H. S. Davis, of West Virginia. The work completed, the convention adjourned. Leaders and ex leaders from ex-President Cleveland, down, have indicated their acceptance and approved of party labors at St. Louis. Bryan immortalized himself by giving notice that he stood in line for the party and would support the ticket.

Now for the fray!

Killed.

Jesse Hathaway, who has been a porter for T. K. Barnes & Sons for three years, was run over on the track of the C. & O. Friday night and killed. His legs were severed from his body and his face was horribly mutilated. The supposition is he was drunk and arriving at the track either sat down on a rail or laid down on the track and went to sleep and was unaware of the approaching freight. Hathaway was about 21 years old and had not been a continuous hard drinker but whiskey no doubt was the cause of his untimely death.

This is a reminder that "Newmeyer's Sale" is still on.

How Drunkards Are Treated in Persia.

Persian drunkards are blacklisted, to be blacklisted means that the person so enrolled cannot visit the bazaar to buy things except at certain hours, and only then under police supervision. He cannot visit any place of public amusement, and even when at prayers in the mosque he must hold himself aloof from his most respectable neighbors. If, after being blacklisted, he drinks again and is found under the influence, he gets eighty lashes on the soles of his feet.

An Affiliated Country.

Colonel Clarence Edwards, in an able and interesting account of the organization and work of the Insular Bureau of the War Department, in the June number of the National Geographic Magazine, thus sums up the difficulties with which the Philippine Islands have had to contend during the past two years:

"Cholera has raged throughout the islands. How many victims it has claimed cannot be exactly told until the census appears; but by comparison with the former visitation of the disease I should not be surprised to find that it had caused from five hundred thousand to eight hundred thousand deaths."

He latter number exceeding ten percent of the population.

"Rinderpest has killed over 95 percent of the carabao, the native work cattle—enough to paralyze agriculture; surra, a form of glanders, has been equally fatal to horses, and a drought has been experienced in the past two years worse than anything that has been known in sixty years. Worst of all has been a two-year's visitation of locusts, which have destroyed everything in their path."

This is doing pretty well, but tropical resources have not been half exhausted in the list given of petty annoyances and minor misfortunes.

Wait till they have a hurricane or two, accompanied by tidal waves, mixed up with a series of first-class volcanic earthquakes of the Krakatoa variety, which that latitude produces, and which make nothing of wiping out towns and swallowing whole islands at a gulp. Then pile on an epidemic of plague which is an indigenous complaint, and the people out there will begin to appreciate their resources. It would be an interesting inquiry in connection with the theory of the direct providential government of the world, as to what particularly heinous sins the Filipinos had been guilty of, that they have been subjected to such protracted and cruel chastisement.

The most remarkable fact about it all is that in spite of such an unprecedented accumulation of obstacles, adversity and affliction the Philippine revenues have increased, and, for the first time since the American occupation, the year 1903 shows a trade balance in favor of the islands of $150,000. If they can compass such results under such untoward and disheartening circumstances what may not be expected if Providence, so long unappeasable, shall once more smile on them?

Sulphur is sometimes dusted among the feathers of chickens to rid them of lice. Care should be observed, not to let the chickens get wet while the sulphur is in their feathers.

When the grass is wet with a heavy dew in the early morning it is well to keep the chickens in their houses until the sun shines long enough to make everything dry, they will be all right.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones. Easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drugstore, 50 cents. 51-41

Nerve Rag.

If You Waste Your Nerve Energy, After While You Will Suffer For It.

You can waste nerve force by excess, over-work, worry, anxiety, etc. You can weaken yourself by not eating proper food or securing sufficient rest to renew the nerve energy you use up. The proper treatment, in addition to good phosphate food, such as whole meal bread, prepared cereals, etc., is Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve.

This is as truly a brain and nerve food as any food you could eat, and besides, furnishes strength and tone of its own, which goes to the weakened nerve system, and sets it to rights.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a refreshing, revitalizing tonic food-medicine for the brain and nerves. It reconstructs worn-out nerve tissue, and fills your languid brain with new life and vigor. Dr. Miles' Nerve has made so many marvelous cures, of people so sick the doctors thought they were incurable, that it is today the standard medicine in many thousands of American homes. The first bottle is guaranteed to help you, or druggist returns your money.

"The extreme heat, close confinement and intense mental strain incident to the banking business, has caused me to suffer from nervousness and insomnia. It gives me pleasure to say that I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve with very satisfactory results in the treatment of these affections. I am now on my fifth bottle, and eat and sleep well. In fact have almost forgotten that I was ever sick."

The Bias of Platforms.

No doubt it is the right thing, in the ordinary course of politics, for a Democratic contemporary to declare that "there is absolutely nothing which the Republican orators can magnify into the semblance of an honest or successful endeavor to purge the Federal service of its vast, degrading system of graft and corruption; but it is interesting to observe the orators trying to paint white a spotted picture." And just think of the resolutions adopted at Chicago, too. They certified to the honesty of Republican administration of affairs. Of course the speakers and the platform makers could do nothing else. What's the use of taking exceptions? There must be not the slightest admission of wrongdoing in political orations and resolutions. Each side must blow its own horn and leave the development of the facts to the other side. To confess so early in the campaign would be to invite terrific disaster. "Keystone" speeches and platforms are generally frauds and humbugs. They are merely self adulation. It some times seems that under our system the minority is really the more important part of the republic.—The Enquirer.

If you want to please the hostess, don't accept all the invitations extended by the host and the children.

If a book will interest any one waiting his turn in a dentist's chair, there need be no further test applied to its entertaining powers. "You go ahead and do it" is one way, but there is a limit to that policy.

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE

Hymel, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, Prescribed by Physicians.

Not one should confound Hymel with patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hymel gives its formula to all reputable physicians. Is it not foolish to try and cure catarrh by swallowing tablets or liquids? The only natural way to cure this disease and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hymel.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 90 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hymel is now sold by W. S. Lloyd under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. You run no risk whatever in buying Hymel. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold under this guarantee.

DEATHS.

SETTLES.—The remains of Ben Settles arrived here from Arkansas City, Kan., Thursday evening, and after a short prayer at the grave Friday morning conducted by Rev. H. D. Clark, were buried in Macpherson cemetery. Ben Settles had many friends who mourn his departure. Peace to his ashes. The aged father and mother and brothers have the sympathy of all who know them.

WILLIAM.—On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Williams, widow of the late Thomas Williams, whom she survived nine weeks, departed this life from organic heart trouble, aged about 70 years. She was a member of the Methodist Church, and a most excellent woman. Funeral service at the late home Thursday 10 a. m. conducted by Rev. H. G. Turner, of the Methodist Church, and Rev. J. R. Hobbs, of the Baptist Church. Burial in Macpherson cemetery.

DARIE.—A telegram was received in Frankfort on Monday saying that Rev. George Darie had died suddenly in Chicago. For about 27 years Rev. Darie has been pastor of the Christian Church at Frankfort. So far as we know there is not, in the Christian Church in the United States, a man who in all the departments of church work and in individual attainment and character, in public favor and love, who is the superior of Geo. Darie. In State and national assemblies among his brethren he has been a shining light and tower of strength. Lately he had under the influence of an anesthetic administered for performing an operation. He left home on last Thursday for Chicago to be treated.

KASH.—James Kash died at his home in North Middletown, Ky., on Thursday afternoon, July 7, 1904. He would have been 72 years old on Friday, July 8. For several months he has been in feeble health. He had been out driving and had just entered his room when an attack of heart trouble ended his life in a few minutes. For several years he lived in our city, later was in Frankfort and then moved to North Middletown. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church. His funeral service was conducted at North Middletown on Saturday by Rev. Gilbert, of Winchester, assisted by Rev. C. W. Dick, pastor of the Christian Church and the burial was in that town. He was a native of Wolfe county and married a Miss Hurst of that county. His wife and seven children mourn his departure. The daughters are Mesdames I. N. Phipps, of this city, Ida Everman and Robert Bishop, of Bourbon, Grafton Patterson, of Jamestown, Ky., and Miss Oda, and the sons, Sam, of Manchester, and Wm., of Lexington.

If you have not been to "Newmeyer's Sale" its time to come.

Narrow Escape.

Friday Sandy Scobee was hauling hay on a spring wagon to his barn and when he got to the barn was standing erect on the load when the horse started suddenly throwing him backward and violently to the ground. At first it was thought his injuries were serious but he has very much improved.

The union service will be held at the Southern Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening, sermon by Rev. J. R. Hobbs.

Claude Paxton was on Sunday elected as Steward of Methodist Church to succeed Wm. Duty, removed to Winchester. His term of office begins in September.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church will meet with Miss Lucy Smith this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the Aid Society at the same place at 3:30.

On first page is an interesting "Sketch of Miss Lavinia Oldham's Work in Japan." Miss Oldham is now in the United States. On Sunday her family did not know the day of her expected arrival in our city.

Sunday, July 17, at 7:45 p. m., the four Christian Churches of Lexington will begin a series of union meetings at Chautauqua Park. These meetings will be held every Sunday night during the months of July and August. I. J. Spencer will address the audience Sunday night on the subject, Christian Union.

Rev. E. G. B. Mann, P. E., preached at Methodist Church on Sunday morning. At the union meeting at Christian Church Sunday evening a large audience greeted Rev. E. G. B. Mann. He preached a plain, earnest, thoughtful sermon for a revival of study of God's word, and set forth the excellencies at the sacred writings as compared with other literary productions. He lamented the popular ignorance of what is contained in the Bible.

LAUGHLIN CAIN.
Miss Mollie Laughlin, formerly of this city, and who owns "real estate here, a resident of Covington for the past year, was married at the Cathedral on the 6th instant, to William Cain, of Carlisle, and will make that city their home after a bridal trip to Wisconsin. Mr. Cain conducts a hotel in Carlisle and is owner of Bourbon and Nicholas farms which receive his personal attention.

ALEXANDER WOOLEY.

At the home of the bride's mother on Clay St., Miss Lillie Mae Alexander was married to Mr. O. E. Wooley, of Charlottesville, West Va. It was a quiet home wedding with only relatives and a few friends present. Miss Nellie Sutton played the wedding march as the bride came in on the arm of the groom, looking beautiful in white and carrying brides roses. The bride is one of Mt. Sterling's brightest and most industrious young ladies. She always had a smile and bright cheerful word for every one. May her life ever be happy with the man of her choice. Mr. Wooley is a good christian young man and is worthy of his choice. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. C. B. Glaze, of Louisville, was beautiful and impressive. After the ceremony the bride and groom drove to the station and took the 9:43 train for Washington where they will be for a short while and then return to Charlottesville, W. Va., where Mr. Wooley is engaged in business and go to house-keeping.

We were glad to welcome Bro. Glaze back to Mt. Sterling and are always glad to welcome him but not to the our girls up and send them off to West Va.

Barefoot sandals for the youngsters.

ALAMANZA BYRD

KILLS HIS SON, NIMROD BYRD, JR.

Over the past unfortunate and unhappy events in the life of Nima Byrd, Jr., we will rest the curtain of privacy.

On last Friday afternoon Nima Byrd, Jr., returned in a buggy from a trip to Winchester under the influence of whiskey, and with an evident determination to do violence at home. According to report, he set fire to a bed up stairs and pitched the bed out of the window, intending to set fire to the building; when his little brother tried to put out the fire Nim threatened to kill him with a hoe; with a corn knife he sought to do violence to his father; the father took refuge in the house and locked the door; entreaties by the aged grand-father, Nim Byrd, Sr., for peace were unavailing; the disturbance continued until after nine o'clock; the father was inside the house with doors locked and armed with a shot gun, the son was on rear porch and with a mallet knocked out the panel of the door in an effort to get to his father. Through this opening the father fired upon his son, who was probably 10 to 12 feet from him; the weapon was loaded with small shot; he fired once and the charge took effect in the left breast below the nipple, resulting in death; the neighbors were notified; as Squire Jno. C. Trimble was going to the Byrd home he met Alamanza Byrd coming to town to surrender; he took charge of Byrd and kept him until the examining trial Monday morning before Judge Hazarding, when Byrd was acquitted.

The burial was in this city late Saturday afternoon.

We are sure that the Byrd family have the sympathy of many in our county in the great troubles that have come to them in the past few years, yet a feeling of relief has come in the removing from our midst of a man converted by strong drink into a dangerous public enemy.

Oldham Brothers & Co.

Will give the Best Ten ($10.00) Dollar Suit of Clothes in their house to the farmer bringing in the Biggest Wagon Load of Country People to their store during the Loom End Sale. They must be brought from the country and brought to the BUSY BEE CASH STORE.

The Contest does not end until the 16th, but we suggest that to-day would be a good time for some of the loads to come in, or any day during the week, thus avoiding a rush and crowd on Saturday, the 16th, the last day of the contest. We have selected Squire Turner, John W. Jones and Thomas Douglas as Judges and they will be here at any time to count the number of people in each wagon, and will keep a record of same. Try for this Suit of Clothes.
